About This Content

What can immerse you in the atmosphere of Ancient Egypt better than its music? Tracks composed for Predynastic Egypt and Egypt: Old Kingdom will carry you to the Nile Delta, to pharaoh's gardens or to the hot savanna, thanks to the careful approach of our composer, Nadia "Insidewaves" Gurskaya:

"Predynastic Egypt is more meditative, it is about "a man and nature". The second game is about "a man and a man", the contact of tribes. That's where the tempo and the richness of the melody come from. The first game soundtrack contains more short motives, freedom – the music imitating wind and letting the listener hear everything: the ambient sounds of the terrain and the weather. Egypt: Old Kingdom is about the flourishing of civilization, and the music adopts a clean rhythm, changes of mood, intense arrangement, and culminations." ©Nadia Gurskaya
